

HOME INVENTORY WORKSHEET

Anna Sicalides, Your Organizing Consultants

Anna Sicalides, Professional Organizer and founder of Your Organizing Consultants, specializes in working with high performance families, individuals undergoing life transitions and those committed to minimizing organizational stress.

Get the most out of the Home Inventory Worksheet! A few tips on how to make the most of this document...

Process: Tackle one room at a time. Start in one corner and work your way around the space, documenting all key items. Moving about the house will only make the process more difficult.

Blank Form: Use the blank form at the end for extra space, missing rooms, etc.

Photograph: Photographing a room is another way to capture the contents as part of the record keeping process.

Documentation... each room before making any decisions. Provide as much detail on each item to be describe its origin. Identify if things should be grouped together (i.e., bedroom set)

Determine Value: List a value of each item, and if you're undecided, consider hiring an appraiser to best determine the value of specific items.
